The colonial towns of Cuba are one of the biggest reasons to visit this magical destination. During this 6-night program, you will take in a city tour of Camagüey by bicitaxi, visit the Valley of the Sugar Mills, wander the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Trinidad, and take a walking tour of Old Havana where you will see the mix of Baroque and neoclassical monuments.

DAY 1: ARRIVAL IN CAMAGÜEY

After arrival to the Camagüey International Airport, you will be dropped off at your hotel to check in. After freshening up, local artist Martha Jimenez will welcome you into her workshop and art gallery where you will view her beautiful work. Dinner is fusion-style at a privately-owned restaurant.

DAY 2: EXPLORE CAMAGÜEY

After breakfast, you will set out on Camagüey the way the locals do—by bicitaxi. Your driver will manually cycle you to some of the best highlights of the city! You will see all of the main plazas: Plaza del Gallo, Plaza de los Trabajadores, Plaza Ignacio Agramonte, and Plaza San Juan de Dios.

Afterwards, you will experience a rehearsal by the world-renowned Camagüey Ballet Company and have a chance to meet with the dancers. You will also learn how they create their own shoes and costumes.

After lunch, you will depart for the house of local artist Cassanova. Here, you will learn how “tinajones,” Camagüey’s most famous visual icons, are made. These large red pots are often found outside of homes and in the past were used to store water.

In the evening, return to your hotel and enjoy dinner on your own.

DAY 3: ART AND REVOLUTION IN SANCTI SPIRITUS AND SANTA CLARA

After breakfast, check out of your Camagüey hotel and begin the three-hour trek to Sancti Spiritus. Here, you will visit the gallery of talented artist Jorge Antonio Gonzalez Perez and enjoy lunch with him.

In the afternoon, you will tour the city of Santa Clara and the famous Revolution Square. Nearby is the Mausoleum of Che Guevara which includes a statue and a museum where you will learn about his life.

Check in to your hotel in Cienfuegos. Dinner is on your own.

DAY 4: OVERVIEW OF TRINIDAD

Enjoy breakfast at your hotel, and then set off on the scenic 2-hour drive to Trinidad. On the way, you'll visit Sugar Mills Valley and then will arrive at Manaca-Iznaga Tower where you will enjoy a stunning bird's eye view of the region. Lunch will be at a local paladar in the center of Trinidad.

After lunch, you will enjoy a walking tour around Trinidad's historical center. Soak in the sights of cobblestoned streets, lively music, and friendly culture. Be sure to visit the shops, galleries, workshops, bars, and restaurants with your guide. The Trinidad history museum, Palacio Cantero, is also a must-see.

Once you return to the hotel, freshen up before heading out for dinner at one of Cienfuego's top paladars.

DAY 5: HEMINGWAY & HAVANA

Depart to Hemingway's home, Finca Vigia ("the lookout farm" located in the town of San Francisco de Paula), where you will visit and see where he wrote two of his most celebrated novels. Peer into the windows and see items just as Hemingway left them, including more than 8,000 books, personal relics, and collections. On the grounds are also his precious boat Pilar and the legendary swimming pool where he hosted some of the biggest cultural icons of the times.

Enjoy lunch at a paladar nearby. Then take a leisurely stroll along the Paseo del Prado, a promenade leading into the heart of Old Havana. Here you will see a fascinating mixture of old and modern architecture and vintage American cars.

In the evening, check into your hotel. Dinner will be on your own tonight.

DAY 6: PLAZA & CRAFT MARKET

It's a day full of sightseeing! Begin your day with a visit to the Museum of the Revolution. This museum is housed in what was the Presidential Palace of all Cuban presidents before the triumph of the Cuban Revolution. Today, it displays the storyline of Cuban history through chronologically exhibited memorabilia.

Then, your local guide and driver will take you deep into Old Havana, which has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1982. You will visit the four principle squares, the San Jose Craft Market, and the Morro Castle, considered one of the oldest stone forts in the Americas.

Return to the hotel and enjoy a fine farewell dinner at a local paladar.
